

The DAILY APPEAL.

SATURDAY AUGUST 25, 1855.

TRADE.—We thank J. H. McManus of the New Orleans for his paper.

RESCUE OF THE RECORDS.—The records had slight damage before their robbery—only nine cases required investigation.

Prof. HARRIS'S hand had returned to the city from Dupont Springs, and is now from this time, prepared to attend to my calls for their services.

THE NEXT TRAIN.—We hear people daily asking, what is the next train to be done? The new St. Louis line of packets is among the first boats that run to this landing; they are the J. H. Dickey, the Philadelphia and the H. L. Dickey, the Kentucky, both of St. Louis, and the steamer Memphis to Cincinnati, E. W. Gandy, Memphis to New Orleans, Wm. Davis, Memphis to Vicksburg, Delware, New Orleans to St. Louis.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is flowing with considerable rapidity, and the space between the water and the banks has been materially widened during the present week.

THE NEW TRAIN.—We hear people daily asking, what is the next train to be done?

The next thing is to cut ship canal at the two lighthouses of Egypt and South America.

OUR FRIEND, personal and political, Hon. J. KNOX WALKER, returned to the city yesterday, having made a short visit to the Spring. We were pleased to see that his health is much improved, if not entirely restored.

NORTH ALABAMA COURTS.—The first half of new cotton from North Alabama was received in this city yesterday by Messrs. WALKER, NELSON & CO., from the plantation of J. W. S. DONELL, Esq., of Lawrence County, W. Va., Washington.

OUR POLICE.—Our police are on the watch for persons detaining in our streets at a rate faster than five miles an hour, the practice is dangerous and most too provocative. For driving highway beyond the rate allowed by law, JOHN LISTER was yesterday fined six dollars.

HON. O. H. GATES, OF ARKANSAS.—We had the pleasure yesterday of a visit from this gentleman, who was at the last election re-elected to the Legislature. With a gulf between him and most of the cleavers and men he had been informed politicians of that State.

DR. M. BOWERS.—One of the principal members of our party, Dr. M. B. Bowers, was with us during our tour, and will not be effected by the rise in the upper Mississippi. There is yet a stage to reach.

IN DRESDEN.—At the hotel de France, where a company of ladies and gentlemen were sitting at the table d'hôte, was an English gentleman, who could speak, but a few words of German.

At least, he wished to help a beautiful young lady, sitting opposite to him, to some game, but did not know the German word for "help." He opened his pocket dictionary, and found the word "Hilf," and then, to support it, wrote down "gruppe" (to catch up) by the arms. He then took his book, and read the last sentence, and then said, "I can catch you by the arm with some butter?" The young lady, who was very pale, and evidently afraid, said, "Yes, I will give you against the indiscretions of the party." Dr. M. B. Bowers and Dr. M. R. BRADY, at the Memphis Landing, or to M. R. BRADY's house.
